ALEX BUNN: LIMBO STACK

Curated by Christina Mitrentse

UNIT24 , 20 Great Guildford St.

London, SE1 0FD

(Behind Tate Modern | Nr. London Bridge )

20th JUNE – 11th JULY

Reception: Friday 20th June 7–9.30pm

Exhibition of large-scale macro-photographs of purpose-built assemblages, sculptures and tableaux.

Alex Bunn presents a series of enormous photographs that traverse the macroscopic and microscopic realms within a single frame. They capture specially created sculptures of a transient or (usually) invisible nature that rely on photographic suspension of time in order to persist. They are designed to supplant action as a coherent flow of momentary events with action as played out by suggestion, perceptive oscillations and the interactions of materials. The project has created supersensory images that explore fresh realms of combined sculpture and photography.

Opening times:

Mon–Thu: 9am–6pm | Fri: 9am–7pm | Sat: 10am–3pm | CLOSED SUNDAY
